INSTRUCTIONS

Anytime an ERB pension recipient wants to change their New Mexico state income tax withholding information with ERB, they must complete a ERB New Mexico State Tax Withholding Form.

Step 1. The pension recipient must complete the top portion of the form with their personal information.

Step 2. Please check the applicable box/es:

- Box 1: Check this box if you do not want New Mexico state income tax withheld from your ERB retirement benefit. If you move outside the state of New Mexico, you should complete a new ERB New Mexico State Tax Withholding Form and check this box. ERB can only withhold New Mexico state income tax and federal income tax. If you move to a state outside of New Mexico that has an income tax, you must pay this income tax directly to the income tax department for that state.
- Box 2: Check this box if you would like the amount of withholding to be based on the New Mexico state withholding tax tables. Additionally, please select the filing status for the tax tables. ERB uses the most current New Mexico withholding tax rates. These rates generally change as of January 1 of each year. Even if you do not change your tax withholdings, the amount withheld from your pension payment might change due to a change in the tax rate.
- Box 3: Check this box if you would like the amount of withholding to be based on the New Mexico state withholding tax tables and an additional amount withheld. If you select this box, please also indicate your filing status for the tax table in Box 2. Indicate the additional amount you want withheld in the space next to the dollar sign.
- Box 4: Check this box if you would like a flat dollar amount withheld for New Mexico state income tax. Indicate the amount you want withheld in the space next to the dollar sign. This amount must be an exact dollar amount and will not change even if the tax rate changes. ERB cannot accept a percentage in Box 4.

Step 3. This section authorizes ERB to deduct and withhold New Mexico state income tax from your pension benefits and must be signed and dated for the withholding to take effect.
