HIGHLIGHTS OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Forms of benefit payments

There are three forms of benefit payments available:

Option A Straight Life Benefit	Option B 100% Survivor Benefit	Option C 50% Survivor Benefit
You will receive your full monthly benefit. The retirement benefit ends upon your death and does not provide for a lifetime benefit for a beneficiary. The balance, if any, that would be payable to a beneficiary or your estate would be the difference between your contributions plus interest at the time of your retirement minus the total retirement benefit payments made to you. Typically, there will be little or no balance left after 2.5 years of retirement.	Your monthly benefit is actuarially reduced to provide for a lifetime benefit for your beneficiary that is 100% of the amount of your monthly benefit. If your beneficiary dies before you, the “pop up” feature increases your monthly benefit to the amount you would have received if you had selected Option A (straight life benefit). The IRS prohibits the selection of a non-spouse Option B beneficiary who is more than 10 years younger than you.	Your monthly benefit is actuarially reduced to provide for a lifetime benefit for your beneficiary that is 50% of the amount of your monthly benefit. If your beneficiary dies before you, the “pop up” feature increases your monthly benefit to the amount you would have received if you had selected Option A (straight life benefit).

The benefit reduction for Option B and C is based on your age and the age of your beneficiary at time of retirement. You will make a final, irrevocable election when you receive your retirement option package.

Your monthly benefit payments

You will receive your monthly benefit by direct deposit. Direct deposit is safer, faster, easier, and more convenient than checks. With direct deposit, your payment is less likely to be lost or stolen because your payment is deposited directly into your bank account on the last business day of each month, giving you faster access and more control over your funds.

If you are employed at the time you apply for retirement, your initial monthly payments will be an estimate based on the salary information provided on this application by your employer. Once final salary information has been reported to the NMERB, your final benefit will be re-calculated, and any adjustments will be retroactively applied.

Community property and retirement benefits

As a retiree, you are not subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, except that any portion awarded to a former spouse in a court decree is paid directly to the former spouse when directed by the courts.

INSTRUCTIONS

General

1. Printed form must be filled out using black or blue ink only. Your retirement application will be rejected if the NMERB receives it as a copy, email, fax, and/or the form contains white-out. To correct any errors, please draw a single line through the mistake and place your initials next to it. ERB has made the option for Electronic signatures available on our website, and are only valid via DocuSign.
2. The effective date of retirement is on the first of the month and benefit payments are made on the last business day of each month. For active members who work less than 218 days in an academic year and are completing the academic year, the effective date of retirement must be July 1. For all other members, including those who are employed 218 or more days in an academic year, the effective date of retirement may be the first day of the month following termination of employment or following receipt of the retirement application by the NMERB, whichever is later.
3. If you are an active member or have terminated employment with an NMERB employer within 90 days of your application, both Member and Employer sections must be completed. If you have been inactive for more than 90 days prior to submitting your application, you only need to complete the Member section. If you have not been terminated for more than 90 days prior to submitting your application, you will need the Employer sections to be completed.

For the Member

1. The original application must be received by NMERB prior to your desired effective date of retirement. If the NMERB receives your retirement application after your desired retirement date, your effective date will be changed to the 1st of the month following receipt of your completed application or the first of the month following termination, whichever is later. Faxed applications are not accepted. Electronic signatures are only valid via DocuSign.

We highly recommend submitting your application before your desired retirement date, using the guideline below.

If this applies to you ...	Recommended timeframe
Nine or ten month contract	Early January of the year of your July 1 retirement
With NMPERA service credits	6 months in advance
All other	3 months in advance

2. List your most recent NMERB employer, even if you have been in an inactive status for 90 days or more. If applicable, indicate if you had previous employment with city, county, or state government under New Mexico Public Employees Retirement Association (PERA).
3. Your proof of age must be included with this application. Please include a copy of one of the following acceptable forms of proof: birth certificate, delayed birth certificate, baptismal certificate, valid passport, valid driver's license, or certificate of Degree of Indian or Alaskan Blood (CDIB).
4. The beneficiary information must be completed, and their proof of age included with this application if you wish to receive an estimate based on an Option B or C form of payment. If you are designating a Special Needs Trust, you must include proof of age for the beneficiary of the Trust along with the Legal Trust Documentation. You will make a final, irrevocable beneficiary designation when you receive your Final Retirement Documents.
