Privacy and Terms of Use Statements for www.erb.nm.gov

As a trusted manager of New Mexico's Educational retirement system, the New Mexico Educational Board (NMERB) website and its accompanying employer and member portals are used as a tool to support individuals in preparing for retirement, serve as a resource after retiring, and provide essential services for both our members, and our participating employers throughout the entire career and retirement journey.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Cookie Policy

NMERB uses cookies to ensure the proper functioning and security of the website while working to improve the overall website experience.

Information Usage

Information provided by individuals is accessible to designated NMERB staff who maintain the website; social media; email marketing platform; work with Member or Employer data records; and provide customer services. By submitting information via the website to NMERB, the individual agrees to the use of submitted information by NMERB, its Board of Trustees, leadership, and staff for the support and benefit of the Member or Employer.

Third party applications and the NMERB website

Third party applications are linked to the NMERB website. Individuals should read the privacy and terms of use policies or statements to be aware of how the information submitted is used for each site. The individual releases NMERB, its Board of Trustees, leadership, and staff from any and all liability in regard to third party applications by willingly using the third party sites.

TERMS OF USE

By using www.erb.nm.gov, the individual guarantees that they will not use the NMERB website in an unlawful or prohibited manner that would in any way do harm to the website or others. Furthermore, by using www.erb.nm.gov, an individual may not procure proprietary graphics, information or related items.
